

Summer Showcase Late – Fri 22 June

Come to a special late-night view of the Summer Showcase. Drop in to see the exhibits, enjoy talks and performances, or simply relax with a drink at the bar.

Ground Floor

---

The Reading Room

Relaxation Bar

Long week at work? Choose a mindful colouring book and relax with a cocktail inspired by Tudor healthcare regimes.

6.30–9.00pm

---

Garden

Performing East and Southeast Asian identity

Diana Yeh and Tamsin Barber's research explores race, migration, and the cultural politics of East & Southeast Asian youth in London. Join them as they introduce dance by Will Pham and poetry by Anna Chen linked to their current research project Becoming East/Southeast Asian.

6.45–7.15pm

Humanities and Humour

Join Steve Cross, comedian and the creator of Bright Club, Science Showoff and the Over-Analysers' Book Club for comedy shows starring some of the UK's funniest academics. Hilarious history, laughable literature, amusing anthropology and curious curation combine to keep you laughing while you learn.

7.30–8.00pm & 8.15–8.45pm

First Floor

---

The Wolfson Room

Indian breath in music

Enjoy an Indian music performance by musicians Kaviraj Singh and Hiren Chate, inspired by Martin Clayton's exhibit Breath in Music.

7.30–7.50pm

---

Gallery

Edible Perfume

Sample a refreshing orange blossom and mint edible perfume created in response to David Perrett's exhibit Perceptions of Health. Inspired by Renaissance flower waters, this perfume is light and fragrant. Made from all natural ingredients, it can be consumed by spraying directly into your mouth or through your skin. Devised by food historian Tasha Marks, Founder of AVM Curiosities and a specialist in the sensory museum.

6.30–9.00pm

---

The Music Room

Performance by Nduduzo Makhathini

Drop in for a live performance by award winning South African Jazz pianist Nduduzo Makhathini, in conjunction with the exhibit South African Jazz Cultures and the Archive.

8.00–8.20pm

FREE, Drop-in. All activities are on a first come, first served basis.