

The Humanities and Social Sciences Tackling the UK's International Challenges

Scheme Notes for Applicants

Purpose and Research Focus

1. The British Academy is inviting proposals from UK-based researchers in the humanities and social sciences to develop international interdisciplinary research projects. The Academy particularly welcomes proposals that develop new or deepen existing collaborations in the humanities and social sciences.
2. This call for proposals is the second round of this Scheme, following a first round last year. A full list of the projects funded last year can be found at: <http://www.britac.ac.uk/tackling-uks-international-challenges-2016-awards-list>. This Scheme focuses on developing projects in the humanities and social sciences, particularly around a series of themes identified by the Academy for international research and policy activity (as detailed below).
3. Awards are of one-year in duration and are available for up to £50,000.
4. The purpose of each project will be to bring original interdisciplinary research ideas from the humanities and social sciences to bear on our understanding of the international challenges and opportunities which the UK has faced, is facing and will face. The projects awarded will aim to deliver specific academic, public, cultural and/or policy-relevant outputs.
5. For this Scheme originality can arise, for example, from looking at material (such as archival material) in new ways or bringing forth new understanding from material that has previously been unknown or less well known, or innovative combinations of researchers (and/or practitioners) in an interdisciplinary manner.
6. Projects could aim, amongst other outcomes, to:
 - a. Enhance public, cultural and/or policy understanding of international challenges past, present and future through the expertise of the humanities and social sciences;
 - b. Develop through the humanities and social sciences the awareness required (such as but not limited to archaeological, historical, cultural,

- linguistic, sociological, legal, psychological and anthropological) to address matters of international concern;
- c. Engender new or deepen existing international interdisciplinary research collaborations in the humanities and social sciences in order to yield new understanding for culture, policy and/or research agendas;
 - d. Further cross-learning between disciplines and/or between academic, policy, cultural, practitioner and public communities on issues that are topical, under-explored or necessitate reframing.
7. It is required that the projects will be international in scope and orientation with clear collaborative links in the proposal with international researchers and/or other relevant stakeholders. It is required that the projects will also be interdisciplinary enterprises led by established or emerging researchers based in the UK. The Academy encourages the involvement of researchers and other stakeholders based outside the UK as Co-Applicants and/or Other Participants.
 8. Successful projects will be required to work closely with the British Academy's International Research & Policy team. This will include attending events at the Academy during the course of the award and having regular contact with the team.
 9. Understanding of the world beyond the UK and developing international research collaborations between UK and international researchers is a critical endeavour. Supporting the humanities and social sciences in this way is fundamental to the British Academy's mission to deliver global leadership in research. The Academy welcomes proposals that embody this spirit and are open to the world. The Academy particularly welcomes proposals that relate to its current international research and policy themes as detailed in the following:
 - i. Conflict, Stability & Security: The challenges posed by addressing issues, such as population movements, violence, oppression and safety have often been multi-faceted. These challenges, today and historically, require a broad understanding of contexts, values, cultures, languages and beliefs in order to engage effectively with the diverse and changing issues at stake. The Academy wishes to support projects in this broad area from the humanities and social sciences to consider, for example, how in the past and in the present public culture, social relations, politics, borders and human development have been and are being impacted by issues such as communal practices, oral history, heritage and reparation in the context of conflict, stability and security.
 - ii. Europe's Futures: The Academy is keen to support projects across the humanities and social sciences undertaking research with European partners into the past, present and future of Europe, particularly with regards to European identity, cohesion and fracture understood broadly to encompass literature, the arts, culture, migration, borders, senses of belonging, and politics to name just a few. Applications that engage with historical and current tropes and sense of European belonging and/or belonging in Europe, and with the work done by narratives of union and disunion will be particularly welcome. Such narratives are, and have always been, a touchstone of practices of inclusion or division and judgements of the familiar, nostalgic or strange.

- iii. Justice, Rights & Equality: The British Academy is keen to support projects in the humanities and social sciences wishing to explore afresh varying perceptions of justice, rights and equality. The Academy is keen to support projects that explore the practical and ethical implications of these concepts and their interaction in different contexts in the past, present and future, with a view to developing original understanding of tensions at the interface of these concepts and how they have been, and are perceived across the world and at varying levels from the individual to the communal, and from the regional to the global. The Academy would welcome applications that draw upon interdisciplinary collaborations across the humanities and social sciences to illustrate the differing and changing lenses that these concepts can be and have been approached from.
- iv. Urban Futures: Considering how perceptions and experiences of the urban have changed in the past and re-imagining cities of the present and the future is critical to enabling cities to survive and thrive. The British Academy is keen to support projects which seek to expand understanding of urban living, practice, governance, (in)formality, and prosperity in the past, present and future. The Academy is keen to support projects that engage with the diverse experiences of urban life and how that has changed over time and particularly encourages researchers across the humanities and social sciences to collaborate together internationally to explore the changing understanding of nature, modernity and space.

10. While the British Academy does not have any other preconceived ideas regarding the exact type of project, outputs, and dissemination of the research, the onus is on applicants to convince the Academy that their projects fully address the aims described above.
11. Applicants are invited to submit their applications by Wednesday 11 October 2017 (17.00 UK Time).

Application Information and Deadline

Applications can only be submitted online using the British Academy's online Flexi-Grant® Grant Management System (GMS) system via (<https://britishacademy.flexigrant.com/>). Further information about the GMS can be found here: <http://www.britac.ac.uk/flexi-grant>. If you have not previously used the British Academy's Flexi-Grant® GMS, please follow the registration process from the Flexi-Grant® homepage. Applications cannot be submitted on paper or in any other format. The deadline for applications to be submitted is Wednesday 11 October 2017. The application will be treated as confidential at all times.

When completing your application on Flexi-Grant®, it is recommended that you take particular note of the following points:

- Personal details: When registered in the British Academy Flexi-Grant® system, a user has the option to add or update personal information such as contact details, log-in details (including email address and password), interests, research, and employment details, at any time. This does not form part of the specific application form for any individual scheme, but represents a personal record of your account in the system. It is useful if this information is kept up to date, but it is not essential to the progress of an application.
- Automatic log-out: You are strongly advised to save your work regularly to prevent accidental loss of information. In particular you should be aware that if the system does not detect any activity for 2 hours it will log out and save the application at that time. Please note that moving between pages within an application form will save the page that you are exiting but completing a field on a page is not considered an activity. It is recommended that you write the text for longer sections/ fields in a word processor such as Word and then copy and paste into the relevant text box to avoid being timed out in this way.
- Multiple sessions: You should not have multiple browser windows/tabs of your application open at the same time as this may cause information to be lost. Only one user should edit an application at a time, otherwise changes might be lost.
- Word limits: When completing boxes that have a restricted length (note that it refers to words) you should note that if you exceed the specified amount you will not be able to save when you press the save button. You should type the text for the longer-length boxes in a word processor. You will then be able to check the word count and paste it into the British Academy Flexi-Grant® system. You will then still have a copy of the text to return to in the word processor. The word limit applies to text boxes.
- Plain text: If entering plain text, please avoid using symbols as some may not be accepted by the British Academy Flexi-Grant® system. You should generate and view a PDF of your application to check that the application appears as you want it to by clicking on 'print form'.

- Uploading PDF documents: When uploading PDF documents, please add your name and a heading at the top of every page to show what the document is. Please avoid uploading documents containing illustrations with fine details or colour as this can cause problems when creating a PDF of the application. Please note we will only print your applications in black and white. Each PDF cannot exceed 3 Mb in size.
- Email addresses: The British Academy Flexi-Grant® system relies heavily on automatic email contact. It is essential that you ensure you enter accurate email addresses where requested as it may cause considerable delay in the submission/processing of your application if any of these are incorrect. You cannot make changes to email addresses after your application has been submitted for approval.
- Submission: You will not be able to submit your application until you have completed each section in full. It is your responsibility to ensure that your application is submitted in good time, and in sufficient time, for it to be approved by your employing institution. You should submit your application for approval by a designated approver at your host organisation at least 5 working days before the closing date to allow for your host organisation's administrative procedures.
- Application sharing: All applications must be started by the applicant who is to be the Principal Investigator (PI) on the award. You can invite other contributors to join the application (e.g. Co-Applicant, Nominated Referee, Head of Department, Finance Office contact etc), but in order to do so your contributor will need to be registered in the British Academy's Flexi-Grant® system first. You will need to ensure you have their registered email address to invite them to participate in your application. You can let other British Academy Flexi-Grant® users view your draft application, in advance of submission, by providing their email address and entering the permissions you want them to have. They will be able to log in using their existing password and also see and, depending on permissions, amend your application.
- Application deletion: You can delete your application at any time although it is often a lot easier to just re-edit your existing application. We will be able to recover a deleted application for a period of 7 days after deletion. After this it will be permanently removed from the system.
- Application returned for editing: The approver can return your application to you for further editing. See 'Submission of Application' below.

- Guidance: In the tables below you will find in the left-hand each question as set out in the application sections and in the right-hand column useful guidance on its completion.
- Further clarification: If any of this advice is unclear, or you need further information, please do not hesitate to seek clarification from the British Academy's International Awards Team (contact details at the end of these notes).

PLEASE NOTE THAT IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT YOU CREATE A PDF OF YOUR COMPLETED APPLICATION (by clicking 'Download as PDF'), AND CHECK IT THOROUGHLY, INCLUDING EMAIL ADDRESSES AND UPLOADED PDF FILES, BEFORE SUBMITTING IT FOR APPROVAL BY YOUR HOST ORGANISATION. IT MAY NOT BE POSSIBLE TO RECTIFY MISTAKES IN TIME FOR THE DEADLINE.

WORD LIMITS APPLY TO PLAIN TEXT ONLY. PAGE LIMITS APPLY TO PDFs ONLY.

ALL FIELDS MARKED WITH AN ASTERISK* ARE MANDATORY.

YOU SHOULD NOT HAVE MULTIPLE BROWSER WINDOWS/TABS OF YOUR APPLICATION OPEN AT THE SAME TIME AS THIS MAY CAUSE INFORMATION TO BE LOST. ONLY ONE USER SHOULD EDIT AN APPLICATION AT A TIME, OTHERWISE CHANGES MIGHT BE LOST.
