

CULTURAL Showcase

Bringing together British institutes overseas to examine the social and economic benefits of cultural heritage.

18 NOVEMBER 2014

BRITISH ACADEMY

for the humanities and social sciences

THE BRITISH ACADEMY SPONSORED OVERSEAS INSTITUTES

The British Academy sponsors a network of British institutes overseas engaged in research and fieldwork across a wide range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences. The sponsored organisations sustain and support UK research overseas, acting as hubs in the local region. They conduct world-class research as well as providing facilities, financial, academic and logistical support and training to researchers. The organisations also collaborate with a wide range of overseas and UK-based partners. They each run an events programmes of lectures, conferences and workshops, held in the UK and overseas, and have their own publication series.

THE NETWORK OF OVERSEAS RESEARCH INSTITUTES INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING:

British Institute at Ankara (est. 1947)

British Institute in Eastern Africa (est. 1960)

British Institute of Persian Studies (est. 1961)

British School at Athens (est. 1886)

British School at Rome (est. 1901)

Council for British Research in the Levant, based in Amman (est. 1975) and Jerusalem (est. 1919)

Academy also supports the UK-based Society for Libyan Studies (est. 1969) and the Council for British Archaeology (est. 1944).

Academy provides administrative and other support to its long-standing associate, the British Institute for the Study of Iraq (est. 1932).
