

UNIVERSITY OF
LIVERPOOL

Narratives of Law in the Exhibition Space

Draft Programme

Thursday 7th September

Registration from 11.30am

Lunch from 12pm-12.45pm

Welcome/Intro - 12.45pm-1pm

Session 1

'Exploring the Interconnections Between Art and Law'

1pm-3pm

Vanessa Munro – University of Warwick

Creative Confrontations in the Reimagining of Legal Precedent: Reflecting on the Scottish Feminist Judgments Project'

Linda Mulcahy – Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, Oxford University

The image of the litigant in contemporary England: A case study from Teeside

Lucy Finchett-Maddock – Bangor University

Art/Law - Post-Law, Post-Exhibition

Coffee Break - 3-3.30pm

Session 2 -

'Protest, Law, and the when and where of Exhibition Spaces'

3.30pm-5.30pm

Sarah Keenan – Birkbeck, University of London

Keeping the Gweagal shield: Property and Truth in post-colonial matters

Illan Wall – University of Warwick

The Public Space of Legal Exhibition: Protest and the Sovereign Stage

Nadine El-Enany – Birkbeck, University of London

TBC

Friday 8th September

Session 3

10am-12.30pm

‘(Challenging) Hegemonic Representations of Law’

Stacy Douglas – University of Ottawa

The Representational Paradigm as Barrier to Democracy

Richard Benjamin – University Liverpool/International Slavery Museum

A Museum in Three Acts

Christine Schwobel-Patel – University of Warwick

Legal Pipelines: A Metaphor for Law, Capitalism, and Extractivism in the Green Transition

Jessie Hohmann – University of Technology Sydney

Looking for International Law in the Botanic Garden

Lunch - 12.30pm - 1.30pm

Session 4 –

1.30pm-3.30pm

‘Radically Rethinking Representation’

Anna Carline – University of Liverpool

Sexual Violence and ‘Artful’ Interventions: Exploring the use of artwork to develop a sexual violence awareness campaign.

Tina Sikka – Newcastle University

Sexual Ethics, Art, and Lived Experience

Lesley McMillan – Glasgow Caledonian University

The #erasethegrey Campaign: Challenging Attitudes to Gender Based Violence & Communicating the Law Through Public Awareness Campaigns

Closing Remarks - 3.30pm-4pm